Craig Furlano
Managing Partner

Craig Furlano joined New Directions Staffing in 2003 as we started our IT & Digital Staffing division. After a few years of IT recruiting in Philadelphia & Southern California, Craig was excited to return to Charleston for an opportunity to work in a family-centered recruiting firm. He states, "I am proud of how much the company has grown and grateful for the relationships I have cultivated with the team, partners, and candidates."

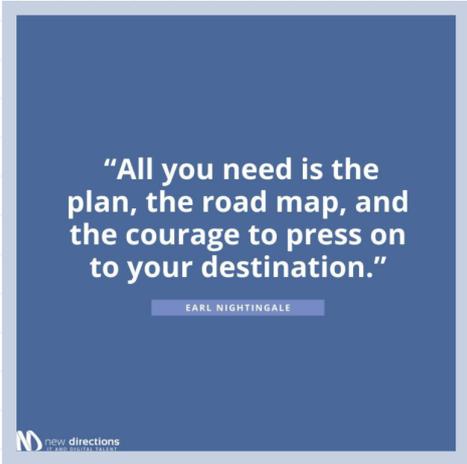

Craig's current obsessions: Going to the beach with his wife, surfing with his kids, and trying to teach his 9-month-old Lab (Hank) some manners.

“

Craig is very professional to work with. He knows what the client needs are and the best match with resources & skills. Depth knowledge of the industry and latest trends. Highly recommend Craig and looking forward to working with him again in near future! - Rajinder B.
